WOOLORAMA 2019

BY DIANA BLACKLOCK | WOOLORAMA MEDIA OFFICER

This year’s event proved to be very successful even with the rain that helped to settle the dust. From talk around the grounds it hadn’t rained at the Woolorama since the early ‘80s, so we have been very fortunate with the weather.

Overall the sheep sections maintained their numbers, the cattle, shearing, and poultry sections were considerably up in entries. All other sections ran well and attracted plenty of crowd interest. Attendance over the two days was over 21,500 with Friday being up from previous years and Saturday slightly down. Trade exhibitors were at full capacity and the large crowd enjoyed the many types of entertainment we had on offer, and food vendors were kept busy a lot of the time.

We had Sean Murphy from ABC Landline officially open the show on Thursday night with over 130 members in attendance. Jessica Hamersley was awarded an appreciation award for her 27 years of voluntary service to the Woolorama, and the evening ended with a fabulous fashion parade coordinated by Emma Kirk and Kristy Ball.

Some of the highlights from this year included Hon. Alannah MacTiernan MLC Minister for Regional Development; Agriculture and Food; Ports Minister Assisting the Minister for State Development, Jobs and Trade Member for the North Metropolitan Region coming to the Woolorama to announce new technology in DPIRD and visit some of our sections with our President Howie Ward.

ABC Landline filmed a piece on - Agriculture in WA and showcased the Woolorama as part of the story, I will notify via FB and the Wool-press when it’s due to go on air... watch this space.

Speed shearing was reintroduced this year and was very fast paced and exciting to watch.

We had our new Rural Ambassador Michael McKenzie promoting rural life for youth and our Patron Peter Rundle MLA, Member for Roe, present at many of the award ceremonies.

The activity on the Wagin Woolorama Facebook page highlighted the popularity of the Wagin Woolorama, there was a never-ending stream of likes, comments and shares that are still going strong.....a wonderful feeling to know how much everyone looks forward to coming and having fun whilst visiting us over the 2 days! 2,2K followers, (227 new followers in 2 days) 2,169 likes, 2,795 views and 21,017 post engagements

Once again the highlight was the Community Spirit that is Wagin Woolorama, all the hardworking volunteers that make it happen and the small but dedicated part-time staff that pull it together. A strong committee that is directed by Howie Ward, who managed to clock up 50,900 steps over 3 days, do countless interviews and visit all areas of the grounds giving his support and guidance where needed.

All in all, it was another successful year for the much prized Wagin Woolorama, with planning for the 48th year already in motion.

Hi to all our Wagin Library & Gallery Patrons and friends

Last week I met a lovely American author, Susanne Wilder, who now lives in Woodanilling. She came to seek me out on Sue Dowson’s recommendation, who told her of the Wagin Library & Gallery’s previous success with author visits.

An excerpt from her biography reads: "Susanne E Wilder, CFE, Cert IV, Dip Ed, BS FNIM is a Home Economist (Washington State University), enlightened Cordon Bleu chef, nutrition consultant, travel writer, and culinary consultant in the food industry to worldwide resorts. Additionally, she is an instructor/trainer with three decades of experience in the food service and consumer food segments as well as a media spokesperson for wellness and lifestyle.

Avocationally, Susanne is also a Hatha Yoga instructor, as well as a roller-blading, biking, kayaking, and fishing bon vivant! Currently, she is working on new formulas and PR for various organic and healthy Australian food clients. She enjoys experiencing and writing food and adventure travel articles for the International Food Wine Travel Writers Association and many other on- and off-line publications."

You can find out more about Susanne on her website: http://www.wilderbythedozens.com.

While there is no doubt that Susanne has excellent credentials in the health and wellness arena, thinking on behalf of our patrons, this is not what interested me so much as the fact that she’s recently written a food-related murder mystery book, and is in the process of completing another.

So without really knowing anything about her fiction works, I suggested that she might like to visit the Wagin Library & Gallery sometime in June to talk about these books, and perhaps sell some if people are interested. As usual, we would spoil her and our audience with a morning tea - although I did say to Susanne that I couldn’t guarantee it would be entirely health-oriented! She reassured me she wasn’t the "food police", which given my own taste in treats, I was secretly delighted to hear.

If, along with me, the idea of hearing Suzanne discuss her mystery books and her journey into the realm of fiction sparks your interest, could you please pop into the Library and let Tina, Graeme or me know whether you would like to support this author visit? Of course, if anybody wanted to discuss Suzanne’s other passion, her health and wellness-related books, I’m sure she would make time for you after the event, but to be clear, this visit will concentrate on her murder mystery books, as this genre seems to be highly popular with many of our patrons.

Looking forward to seeing you all in the Library soon!

WAGIN LIBRARY & GALLERY OPENING TIMES

| MONDAY: 2pm – 4pm | THURSDAY: 10am – 12pm | 2pm – 5pm |
| TUESDAY: 2pm – 5pm | FRIDAY: 1pm – 5pm |
| WEDNESDAY: 10am – 12pm | 2pm – 5pm | SATURDAY: 10am – 12pm |
March is Women’s History Month. The theme for 2019 is “Visionary Women: Champions of Peace & Nonviolence.” This year we honour women who have led efforts to end war, violence, and injustice and pioneered the use of nonviolence to change society. These Honorees embraced the fact that the means determine the ends and so developed nonviolent methods to ensure just and peaceful results.

For generations, women have resolved conflicts in their homes, schools, and communities. They have rejected violence as counterproductive and stressed the need to restore respect, establish justice, and reduce the causes of conflict as the surest way to peace. From legal defence and public education to direct action and civil disobedience, women have expanded the American tradition of using inclusive, democratic and active means to reduce violence, achieve peace, and promote the common good.

From women’s rights and racial justice to disarmament and gun control, the drive for nonviolent change has been championed by visionary women. These women consciously built supportive, nonviolent alternatives and loving communities as well as advocating change. They have given voice to the unrepresented and hope to victims of violence and those who dream of a peaceful world.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE NEW AUTOMATIC DOOR AT THE MEDICAL CENTRE?

The New door allows much easier and safer accessibility for all patients who visit the Doctors Surgery, Dentist and Child Health Service. This is such a positive addition to the Medical Centre! Many thanks to the Shire of Wagin for organising this!

Have your say about growing older in your community

We are seeking views from those who are:

- 65 years of age and over; or
- 50 years of age and over and identify as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander; and
- living in or have a strong connection to Wagin.

The 2019 Growing older in your community survey asks about your views of growing older and ageing in your community. The survey will help us understand the barriers and opportunities for you to ‘age in place’ within your community.

There are various ways you can provide your feedback:

- complete the survey on paper and return it by pre-paid return post; or
- complete the survey online via www.surveymonkey.com/r/growingoldincommunity; or
- call 08 6389 4500 and register your interest in the survey and we can call you back to complete the survey by telephone.

Paper forms of the survey are available in your town at the following facilities:

- Community Resource Centre
- Library
- Shire office
- Local community groups

If you have any questions about this survey, please contact Rural Health West on 08 6389 4500.

PENNANT WINNERS FOR 2018/2019
BY BRON HEGARTY

Wagin Bowling ladies are winners (and grinners!) following their top of the table finish in Pennants for the Great Southern Bowling League. This is their second win in 3 years – the awesome result of the ladies hard work and practice!

Wagin achieved a total of 33 points out of a possible 40 points to secure their win.

Wagin has been very fortunate to have 13 Pennant players for the season. While this had its ups and downs, what prevailed was the ladies’ sportsmanship and team spirit.

The final game was played at Kojonup on a very warm day. As we have done before, Wagin ladies hired the Community bus to take players and supporters to the game. All Wagin ladies wore their uniform and, I must say, we had the best-dressed cheer squad on the day!

Presentations were held following a delicious lunch hosted by Kojonup and their band of helpers.

Wagin also won the League Triples event (team of Coral Davies, Karynne Robinson, Fe Thompson) but missed out on the Joan Hewton Shield which was won by Kojonup.

The ladies celebrated with dinner, fun and frivolity following their win.

Congratulations ladies – a very well deserved win!!

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST FOR LOAD RESTRANNT TRAINING

If you are the driver of a vehicle or have contributed to the loading and unloading of a vehicle, you have a duty of care to others on the road to ensure the load is restrained correctly and safely. Load Restraint Training aims to give you the necessary skills, knowledge and techniques to ensure various types of loads in accordance with the National Transport Commission, Australian Standards and industry best practice standards.

COURSE AIM

This course is aimed to ensure that you become familiar with the general principles of load restraint and the use of the use of the load restraint guide. As the safe carriage of loads is everyone’s responsibility, this course should ensure that we all refresh our knowledge about the basic principles of load restraint guides; assist us in carrying loads safely, thus protecting the load, other road users and ourselves.

COURSE CONTENT

During this course you will learn and understand the importance of restraining a load on a vehicle. Participants will learn:

- Applicable legislation and responsibility;
- Relevant forces and loading;
- Load distribution and correct placement;
- Restraint systems, their use and innovations incl. HIL, detention;
- Securing methods;
- Fitches and bands;

- Dangerous goods;
- Through loads and other personal and others health and safety;
- Introduction to the load restraint guide;
- General principles of load restraint;

ASSESSMENT

This accredited course will be required to undertake a written assessment.

CERTIFICATION

Those successfully completing this course will receive a Statement of Attainment and Accreditation wallet card for the nationally accredited units TLA1001A - Secure cargo and TLID2004A - Load and Unload Goods/Cargo.
